

Chancery Bar Careers Fair

Saturday 17 November 2012

The Honourable Society of Gray's Inn
8 South Square, Gray's Inn
London WC1R 5ET

where you come from doesn't matter,
where you're going does.

Your future: chancery barrister?

The Chancery Bar

You are about to embark on an important stage in your life: asking yourself the million dollar question as to what the next 40 years hold.

One of the career options you may want to consider as a law student is becoming a barrister.

There are many different areas of law in which you can specialise at the Bar and that choice itself can be overwhelming. This is where the Chancery Bar Association would like to help.

With the Chancery Bar Careers Fair we aim to shed some light on what the Chancery Bar is, how to kick start a career at the Bar, provide information on the different areas of work and give you a platform to mingle with different sets of chambers.

This leaflet provides you with lots of useful information on the Fair, as does our website at www.chba.org.uk If you would like to register, please click above.

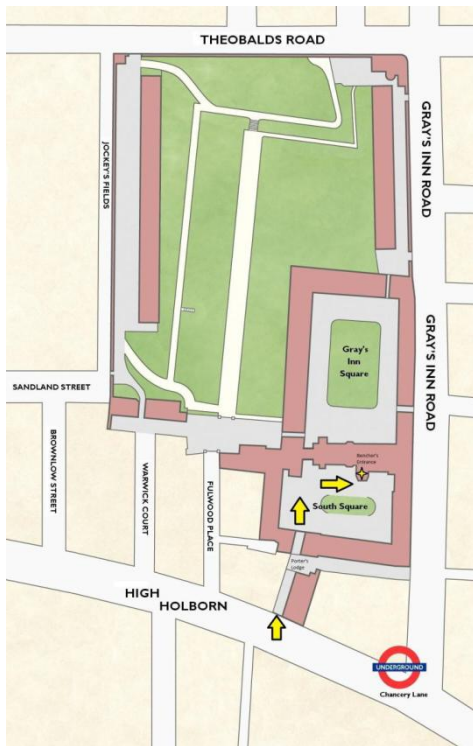

We look forward to seeing you on the 17th November.

Best wishes,

Timothy Fancourt QC
Chairman, The Chancery Bar Association

Areas of Work

- Banking
- Charities
- Civil Fraud
- Commercial Litigation
- Company
- Consumer Credit
- Court of protection
- Financial Services and Regulation
- Insolvency (Corporate and Personal)
- Intellectual Property
- Land and Real Property
- Landlord and Tenant
- Media and Entertainment
- Partnership
- Pensions
- Probate and Administration of Estates
- Professional Negligence
- Revenue and Tax
- Trusts and Settlements

Participating chambers

At the Fair, you will have the opportunity to talk to representatives of over 20 different sets of chambers, specialising in a wide range of practice areas. For the most up to date list of participating chambers, please consult the website at www.chba.org.uk

Or follow us on Twitter
@chbacareersfair

LOCATION

Gray's Inn is situated on High Holborn at the City end. The nearest tube is Chancery Lane, on the Central Line. Alternatively it is 5-10 minutes walk from Holborn, on the Piccadilly Line.

The entrance into South Square is through a narrow archway, which can be found on High Holborn, flanked by Rymans the stationers and the Cittie of Yorke pub.

"You can meet barristers and pupils and have a proper conversation with real answers"

"[the Fair] is a really good introduction to what Chancery law involves"

"The talks were really informative and it didn't matter what level you were at..."

"I would definitely recommend this Fair-fantastic opportunity to find out what life would be like as a pupil"

Timetable

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| 10.30-11.00 | Coffee and Registration |
| 11.00-11.35 | Panel Q&A – pathways to qualification |
| 11.35-12.15 | A series of talks on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • pupillage in chancery chambers • traditional chancery practice • commercial chancery practice • company & insolvency practice |
| 12.15-14.20 | Chambers' stands open: an opportunity to visit stands and mingle with attendees from Chancery Chambers. A light sandwich lunch will be served from 12.15-13.25 |
| 14.20-15.30 | A series of talks on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • civil fraud • property litigation and L&T in practice • professional negligence in practice • revenue law • chancery practice outside London • overseas opportunities |

Registration for the Fair is free at www.chba.org.uk