

Chancery Bar Association Channel Islands Conference 2016

Wednesday, 2nd November 2016
Fermain Valley Hotel, St Peter Port, Guernsey

- 2.00 - 2.30 pm Registration & coffee
- 2.30 - 3.00 pm The seven principles governing freezing injunctions.
- There are seven principles that govern, or should govern, the jurisdiction of the court to grant a freezing injunction (not three as suggested by Beatson LJ in JSC BTA Bank v Ablyazov [2014] 1 Lloyd's Rep 195, [34]).
 - An understanding of these principles is fundamental for practitioners seeking on behalf of their clients to invoke, or to resist the jurisdiction to award this draconian form of injunctive relief.
- 3.00 - 3.30 pm When is a trustee not a trustee?
- How trustee appointments and retirements can go wrong
 - Dealing with the consequences
- 3.30 - 4.00 pm Forgery and forensics (or how not to fake a will)
- Handwriting and graphology experts
 - Paper, toner, word-processing
 - Ink analysis
- 4.00 - 4.30 pm Afternoon tea
- 4.30 - 5.00 pm Constructive knowledge time bar- the negligent adviser's best friend
- Limitation/prescription for economic torts.
 - Constructive knowledge under English law
 - Reflections on Empêchement D'agir
- 5.00 - 6.00 pm Offshore Trusts and English Divorces
- The powers of the Family Division to vary nuptial settlements: when do they apply and how are they (ab)used.
 - Offshore trusts and English assets: Following Prest v Petrodel can the English Court make orders directly against English assets?
 - English procedure and practice: when and how can trustees participate and the effect of their deciding not to.
 - Trustee application for directions: when to apply and what questions to ask.
- 6.00 - 8.00 pm Champagne & canapé reception
