

Isle of Man Conference

Sefton Hotel

Douglas, Isle of Man

Thursday, 8th November 2018

Registration from 1.45pm -

Canape Reception from 6pm

This conference is free for Isle of Man practitioners but booking is essential.

Please click here to book

2.00 pm Registration & Coffee

2.25 pm Welcome from Conference Chair:

Penelope Reed QC,
5 Stone Buildings

2.30 - 3.15 pm Panel Session: Directors on the brink and in the shadows

Recent English and offshore authorities considering:

- When and to what extent directors owe their duties to creditors in times of financial difficulties
- The fiduciary duties owed by shadow directors
- The evidential considerations to be borne in mind when seeking to establish de facto and shadow directorship.

Lesley Anderson QC,
Kings & Hardwicke
&
Matthew Morrison,
Serle Court

3.15 - 4.00 pm Panel Session: Capacity & Undue Influence

An introduction to the English Court of Protection and the Mental Capacity Act 2005

- Capacity and decision making within the context of the Mental Capacity Act 2005.
- Cross-Border incapacity issues; recognising offshore powers of attorney and court orders in the Court of Protection.

David Rees QC,
5 Stone Buildings

What knowledge and approval of a Will really means

- Burden of proof: one stage or two?
- Approval: words and their effect.

Alexander Learmonth,
New Square Chambers

Undue Influence and Inter Vivos Transactions

- What do we mean by "presumed" undue influence?
- The potential role of third party advisers in relation to impugned transactions.

Elis Gomer,
St John's Buildings

4.00 - 4.30 pm Afternoon tea

4.30 - 5.00 pm

Panel Session: Sham Trusts

Too controlling or just overprotective? The problem of broad protector powers

- When may the assets of a company be treated as the assets of its shareholder?
- Can the veil of a trust ever be pierced or lifted to enable recovery against a settlor?
- Some thoughts about sham.
- The potential role of receivers.

Robert Ham QC,
Wilberforce Chambers
&
Mark Hubbard,
New Square Chambers

5.00 - 5.30pm

Panel Session: Trustee Liability

Trustee Liability and Insolvent Trusts following Investec v Glenalla [2018] UKPC 7

- Trustee's liabilities for the debts of the trust
- Limitations on liability when a trust is insolvent
- The Trustee's right to an indemnity where there has been a breach of trust
- The Creditor's rights of subrogation where a trustee is in breach of trust
- Jurisdictional issues where one jurisdiction recognises a limitation on liability and another does not

Richard Dew,
Ten Old Square
&
James Poole,
Ten Old Square

5.30 - 6.00pm

Lecture

Ivey v Genting and dishonesty – new dawn or false horizon?

- Misunderstanding in the criminal law
- Uncertainty in the civil law
- Dishonesty and disciplinary proceedings
- Resolution of the issues
- What about the future?

Richard Spearman QC,
39 Essex Court

6.00pm

Drinks and Canapé Reception